

Cindy Shaw

Cindy ministers as a spiritual director, directs individual and group retreats, days of reflection, and workshops on various topics, including Ignatian spirituality.

After a thirty-year career as a radiation therapist, Cindy returned to the classroom where she received her M.A. in Lay Ministry and her M.A. certification in spiritual direction and retreat direction from Creighton University.

Cindy moved to Iowa from Arkansas, where she spent the majority of her adult life in both parish and diocesan ministry. She and her husband Cody have been married for 45 years; have four children and 17 grandchildren.

Cindy has been a co-director at Emmaus House since 2012.
