Catholic Charismatic Renewal

Arkansas Catholic Charismatic Renewal Service for the Diocese of Little Rock invites you to its annual conference, July 28-30 at the Wyndham Riverfront Hotel, North Little Rock. "Come Wade in the Water," registration opens Friday, July 28 at 3pm.

To view the schedule and speakers, go to www.arkcc.org. A "Life in the Spirit" seminar for ages 13-18 is featured on Saturday and Children's Ministry, age 5-12, is also available. The conference closes with 11am Mass on Sunday with Bishop Anthony Taylor.

For registration form or further information, go to website or contact Linda at 501-753-1553

Sunday Meal Volunteers!

During the fall and spring semesters, St. Thomas Aquinas is happy to provide Sunday Meals following the 5pm Mass. These meals provide a great environment for the community to get to know each other and build relationships over dinner.

We are looking forward to another great year of meals ahead, but could use your help! If you or a group you are connected to, or you and a group of friends, are interested in volunteering to prepare and serve a Sunday meal, either this upcoming fall or spring semester, please contact Adam Koehler at akoehler@uark.edu.

St. Thomas will provide the food for your favorite recipe and we will do all the cleanup! We really appreciate the help and support of the Sunday Meal program at St. Thomas Aquinas!

Our mission is to energize our role in the liturgical life of the Church through worship, education, music and a variety of resources - all within easy access to the Diocese of Little Rock, Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri and others.

The Little Rock Theology Institute

Provides a unique opportunity to enrich your personal spiritual journey, grow in knowledge of the Catholic faith, and for those wishing to earn a degree in Theology. Classes meet once weekend a month from September to June. For more information call 501-664-0340 ext. 359 or 323, or visit www.dolr.org. Please prayerfully consider joining us this year!

Thank you for your generous support in our recent Peter's Pence Collection!

As a parish, we collected $595.07. Our contributions will be combined with those from our brothers and sisters around the world to help Pope Francis provide essential relief to people in need.

If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give, visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections, and click on the "How to Give" link on the left.

In This Place

We are all hungry people, we need shelter and strength.
We are one in our hurting, we are one in our pain.
In our suffering and sadness, we are saved by the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

Chorus:

We are gathered at table as one in the Lord.
We are gathered as people who are living the Word.
Our hearts and our spirits are nurtured by grace.
It is Jesus who fills us. He is here in this place.

All our lives are a mystery; we see not where they lead.
We are asked now to trust you and we know we must believe.

As our feet become Christ's feet, we go forth with the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

Though the world may tell us to look at ourselves,
we reach out to another where suffering dwells.
As our hands become Christ's hands,
we are healed by the grace
of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

In the bread that is broken is the Christ that restores.
As we take, now receive him, we find love evermore.
As the bread becomes Body, we are filled with the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

Our Mission Statement

We are a Christian faith community with a unique mission and commitment to the students, faculty and staff of the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. All in the Fayetteville area are welcome in this community. We prayerfully strive to be Christ-like by providing a source of guidance, spiritual growth and awareness of our Roman Catholic identity, a challenge to service and an enthusiastic spirit of worship. We are a sacrament and proclaim God's love with the message of hope, sacrifice, reconciliation and everlasting life. We encourage each other to accept the Eucharist as the Lord's invitation and the center of our lives.

Shine On Us

Lord let Your light
Light of Your face shine on us
Lord let Your light
Light of Your face shine on us
That we may be saved, That we may have life
To find our way in the darkest night
Let Your light shine on us

Lord let Your grace
Grace from Your hand fall on us
Lord let Your grace
Grace from Your hand fall on us
That we may be saved, That we may have life
To find our way in the darkest night
Let Your grace fall on us

Lord let Your love
Love with no end come over us
Lord let Your love
Love with no end come over us
That we may be saved
That we may have life
To find our way in the darkest night
Let Your love come over us
Let Your light shine on us

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

For centuries, the only Eucharistic Prayer we heard as Western Catholics was the old Roman Canon, usually recited in a low voice by the priest, in Latin. By the 1940s, many Catholics were learning to follow along with the actions of the priest by means of a bilingual missal, with Latin on one side and English on the other. Drawings of the priest's position at the altar, moving from one side to the other, or bowing or standing with uplifted hands at the center, helped the readers stay on track.

The Roman Canon is a long prayer, and since it was done every day for every occasion, priests had a way of galloping through it. Even though long, its structure is fairly simple, with the consecration and sacrifice clearly marked out. Sadly, this surviving prayer had triumphed over many treasures of our tradition that emphasized other dimensions of Eucharist. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy in 1963 did not call directly for new Eucharistic Prayers, but that direction was inevitable. Discussion began almost immediately, and by 1967 the Vatican approved three new Eucharistic Prayers. In 1974, the Congregation for Worship unveiled the experiment of two Eucharistic Prayers for Masses of Reconciliation, and three for Masses with Children. At last, a period of creativity and enrichment had begun.
