Table of Plenty

Come to the feast of heaven and earth!
Come to the table of plenty!
God will provide for all that we need here at the table of plenty.

O come and sit at my table, where saints and sinners are friends.
I wait to welcome the lost and lonely to share the cup of my love.

O come and eat without money;
come to drink without price.
My feast of gladness will feed your spirit with faith and fullness of life.

My bread will ever sustain you
Through days of sorrow and woe
My wine will flow like a sea of gladness to flood the depths of your soul

Your fields will flower in fullness;
your homes will flourish in peace
For I, the giver of home and harvest,
Will send my rain on the soil

Oceans

You call me out upon the waters
The great unknown where feet may fail
And there I find You in the mystery
In oceans deep my faith will stand

Chorus:

And I will call upon Your name
And keep my eyes above the waves
When oceans rise
My soul will rest in Your embrace
For I am Yours and You are mine
Your grace abounds in deepest waters
Your sov'reign hand will be my guide
Where feet may fail and fear surrounds me
You've never failed and You won't start now

Bridge: (sing 3-4 times)

Spirit lead me
Where my trust is without borders
Let me walk upon the waters
Wherever You would call me
Take me deeper
Than my feet could ever wander
And my faith will be made stronger
In the presence of my Saviour

I will call upon Your name
Keep my eyes above the waves
My soul will rest in Your embrace
I am Yours and You are mine

Statement by Bishop Anthony B. Taylor, August 16, 2018

August 16, 2018 My brothers and sisters in Christ, Like all of you, I was horrified three weeks ago when I learned about ex-Cardinal McCarrick's misdeeds. I had met him briefly only once and, of course, suspected nothing. I certainly would never have dreamed that it would have been possible that others could have known about his personal history and still allowed him to remain in ministry, much less advance in the hierarchy of the Church. Upon learning of his suspension from the exercise of public ministry I issued a statement asking for prayers for his victims and all involved. I also reminded everyone of the importance of the safe environment policies of our diocese and repeated my desire to provide assistance to anyone who has been abused by a priest or any other representative of the Church. And now, just when I thought nothing could be worse than a cardinal who actually abused minors himself, we learned this week of the devastating results of the grand jury investigation of abuse by clergy in Pennsylvania — more than 300 cases going back over the span of 70 years. While it is true that the overwhelming majority of these were prior to the implementation in 2002 of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, the discovery that criminal acts of this magnitude occurred so frequently prior to that, and that these crimes were often concealed by the very bishops who should have been the victims' most ardent advocates, is unspeakably disheartening. This is as hard for me to accept as it is for many of you. People have asked me, "How do I explain this to my non-Catholic friends?" All I can say is that Judas was one of the 12 apostles and there is a bit of Judas in every one of us. We are a Church of sinners and Satan prowls the world seeking the ruin of souls, but more powerful than any evil is the power of the Holy Spirit who continues to guide us in every age. Over the course of the past 2,000 years the Church has been buffeted by storms and scandals of every sort, but the Lord continues to be in our midst and our faith is in him, not in any single priest, bishop or cardinal.
